Kim Dowd

Ms. Kim Dowd's retirement gives us opportunity to reflect on how one person's commitment to excellence, kindness and the littlest of Jesus' children can touch not only each child but all who are a part of that child's life. Whether in the Hibben Preschool or as a Children's Coordinator, she has shown a "better way". We celebrate her life among us and we wish that her next steps are filled with joy, peace and fulfillment.

UNAFRAID

"He Came Back Didn't He?" What does that question, and its answer mean for us in times of transition, disappointment, and outright turmoil?

When he came back, his presence brought the disciples out from behind locked doors and created a Church that has in good and bad times brought forward lives to witness to God's presence. We might be fearful, but we keep going in hope.

In May, we move forward once more in celebration, memory, and transition in our personal and communal life.

The sermon series is UNAFRAID with an emphasis on facing fear, releasing fear, pushing back against fear and moving on from fear in these times of transition, celebration and new starts.

. Amy Epperson

Amy Epperson's resignation as Director of Music and Children's Coordinator is effective on Sunday, May 15. On Sunday, May 22, the choir and other related ministries will host a reception in the CLLC immediately following worship. Please join us in expressing appreciation for her work here and best wishes for her in the future.

"Bee" A Good Friend

Bee Still and Know
Mark your calendars for Sunday, May 22, when we will wrap up our fundraiser for Heifer International. More than $625 has been raised to purchase a honey bee farm, but we need approximately $1,900 more. We will have crafts, snacks and pictures!

Wear your best black and yellow and have your picture taken for your Realm profile. This is not for a directory but just to put a name with a face within Realm.

Our fun bee Sunday will be a perfect wrap-up as we also say goodbye and celebrate Amy Epperson's contributions and dedication to Hibben.

Youth & Glow

Graduation Recognition Sunday is next week, May 15! We invite you to take some time this week and next week to fill out cards to congratulate our graduates.
